The Bromley entries Windmere and Indian Fairy, had done so well in their private trials in addition to the display of striking speed in public contests that the Bromley stable led the betting on the $50-60 Matron Stakes for two-year-olds J. J. Hyland's Erlander (owned by August Belmont, but run in Mr. Hyland's name) was the second choice. Indian Fairy gained the plump prize, but Brigadler was unplaced. Hyland means well but he is an old fashioned trainer and very unbucky. Should the Bank of England make a practice of backing horses trained by Hyland, it would soon be compelled to suspend payments. After Brigadler get second place in the Futurity he had several small stables at Sheepshead Hay and Gravesend at his mercy, but Hyland decided to reserve him for the 12000 Matron Stakes. Brigadler was reserved, and did not win a cent in the Matron. QUAKERS IN GOOD FORM.

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.-The practice of the University of Pennsylvania football squad to-day was good and fast, and much to the liking of George George Brooke, the famous Pennsylvania fullback, was to line up against the 'varsity, brought out a large number of candidates and students to the field. After the 'varsity had tired out the scrub team, the Swarthmore players took a hand in the practice for about twenty minutes. Pennsylvania's work against this team was also of a high order, the Quakers making a touchdown in a short time. Bucknell will be Pennsylvania's opponent to-morrow, and Coach Woodruff will use about twenty men during the game, as he wishes to try out all the candidates.

RAGGED WORK BY THE TIGERS.

Oglesby showed up in such good form on the scrub that he was transferred to the Varshy. Poe played at the right end. This was the first time he entered practice this season. Beardsley was relegated from halfback to left end. Captain Edwards announced to-night that the team would leave Friday morning on a trip South.

The Staten Island Cricket and Basehall Club has everything in readiness for the cricket match, which will be played to-day at Livingston between All New-York and Prince Ranjitsinhij's English team. The visitors arrived in New-York on Monday evening, and went to the Hotel Castleton, at St. George, Staten Island. They were interested spectators at the yacht race, which they viewed from the steamer Viking, as guesis of R. T. Rokeby, captain of the Staten Island Cricket Club, and some other New-York cricketers.

The game to-day will begin promptly at 11 o'clock, and there will be as few delays as possible in order that a result may be reached in the two days of the match. Some difficulty has been experienced by the committee of the Metropolitan League in selecting the local team, but it has chosen the best men available, and it is confidently expected that they will do as well, at least, as the men of Philadelphia, who suffered defeat by an innings and 173 runs.
